The rule that a partner is the agent of the firm for the purpose of the business of the firm cannot be applied to all transactions and dealings between the partners themselves. It is applicable only to the acts done by partners for the purpose of the business of the firm.

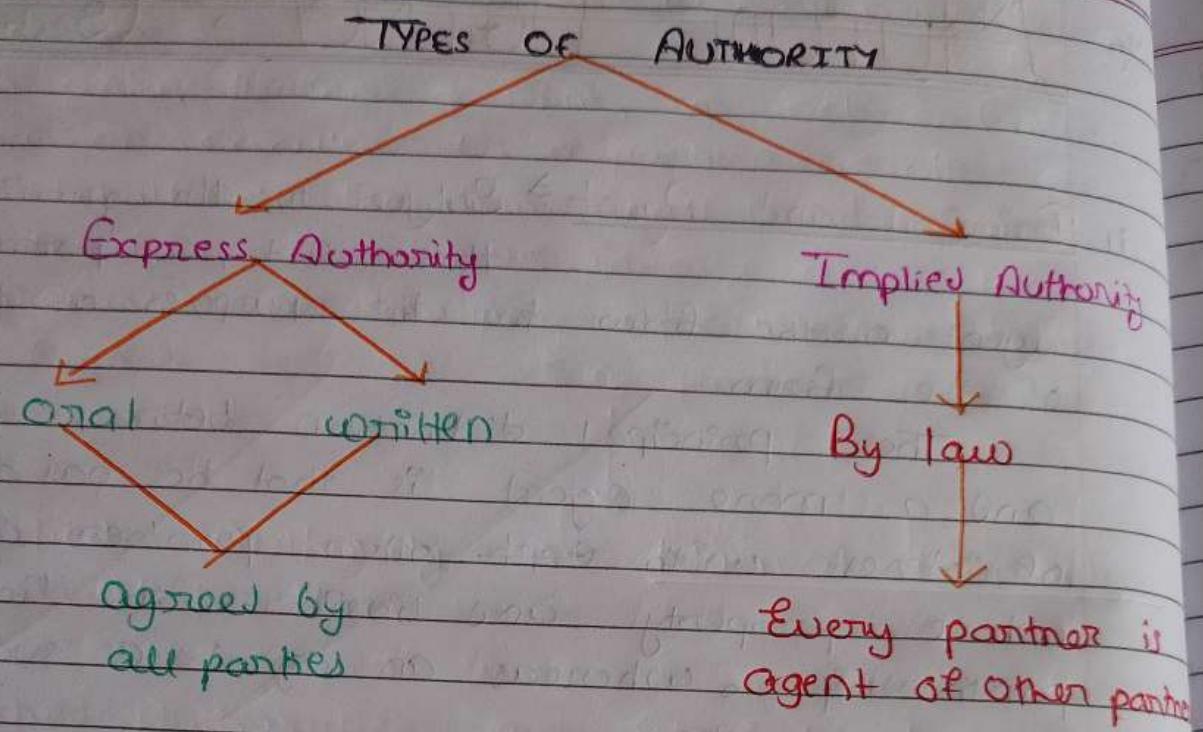

Ex.-

Gurpreet Sir

Given Authority to sell car

Thumroo — ^{contract} → Customer
↓ (Agent)

So, Agent cannot contract beyond his authority. If he does then he will be personally liable.

• Agent VS. Partner :-

The principal distinction between Partner and a mere agent is that he has a community of interest with other partners in the whole property and business and liabilities of partnership, whereas, an agent as such has no interest in either.

The Acts Not Covered under implied Authority for the interest of partner not for personal problem. [Partners ke interest ki kaha cahiye aur fir personal dusmani kee wajah se]

Note:- If the above conditions are not satisfied then Expulsion is null and void.

- Liability of Expelled partner:-

The provisions of sub-section [2], [3] and [4] of section 32 shall apply to an expelled partner as if he were a retained partner.

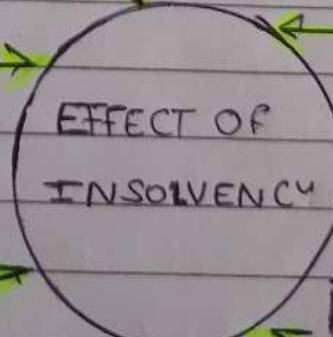

It may be noted that under the Act, the expulsion of partners does not necessarily result in dissolution of the firm.

The invalid expulsion of a partner does not put an end to the partnership even if the partnership is at will and it will be deemed to continue as before.

5.) Insolvency of a partner (Section-34) :-

The estate of the insolvent Partner is not liable for the acts of the firm done after the date of order of adjudication.

He will be ceased to be a partner from the very date on which the order of adjudication is made.

The firm is also not liable for any act of insolvent partner after the date of the order of adjudication.

The insolvent partner cannot be continued as a partner.

Invariably the insolvency of partner results in the dissolution of a firm, but the partners are competent to agree among themselves that the insolvency of a partner in an insolvent will not give rise to dissolution of the firm

4.) Deceased Partner (Section-35) :-

Where under a contract between the partners, the firm is not dissolved by the death of a partner, the estate of a deceased partner is not liable for any act of the firm done after his death.

Modes of dissolution of Partnership firm

Without Court Intervention

- 1.) Dissolution by Agreement ⇒ A firm may be dissolved with the consent of all the partners or in accordance with a contract between the partners.
- 2.) Dissolution by Notice of partnership at will (Section-4)
Where the partnership is at will, the firm may be dissolved by any partner giving notice in writing to all the other partners of his intention to dissolve the firm.

The firm is dissolved as from the date mentioned in the notice as the date of dissolution, or in case no date is mentioned, as from the date of the communication of the notice.

- 3.) Compulsory dissolution (Section-41) :-

By the adjudication of all the partners or of all the partners but one as insolvent.

By the happening of an event which makes it unlawful for the business of the firm to be carried on or for the partners to carry it on its partnership. [If government had banned]

However, when more than one separate adventure or undertaking is carried on by the firm, the illegality of one or more shall not of itself cause the dissolution of the firm in respect of its lawful adventures and undertakings.

4.) Dissolution on the happening of certain Contingencies

(Section-42)

Subject to contract between the partners, a firm can be dissolved on the happening of any of the following contingencies:-

Where a firm is constituted for a fixed term, on the expiry of that term

Where the firm is constituted to carry out one or more adventures or undertaking, then by completion thereof.

By the death of a partner

By the adjudication of partner or an insolvent

• By The Court :

- (i) Treason / Unsound mind ⇒ where a partner (not a sleeping partner) has become of unsound mind, the court may dissolve the firm on a suit of the other partners or by the next friend of the insinc partner. Temporary sickness is no ground for dissolution of firm.
- (ii) Permanent Incapacity ⇒ when a partner, other than the partner suing, has become in any way permanently incapable of performing his duties as partner, then the court may dissolve the firm. Such permanent incapability may result from physical disability or illness, etc.
- (iii) Misconduct ⇒ where a partner other than suing is guilty of conduct which is likely to affect prejudicially the carrying on of business. The court may order for dissolution of firm.
- It is not necessary that misconduct must relate to the conduct of the business.
- (iv) Persistent breach of agreement ⇒ If a partner, other than partner suing, continuously breach the agreement relating to the management of the affairs of the firm, then the court may dissolve the firm.

following comes in to category of breach of contract:-

- > Embezzlement.
