3. (a) (1) In the given case, price is not the sole consideration for the supply. Apart from monetary consideration, the buyer has given some material to the supplier as consideration for such supply. Hence, the value of the supply cannot be determined on the basis of the transaction value in terms of section 15 of the CGST Act, 2017.

Here, the value will be determined with the help of rule 27 of the CGST Rules, 2017 which specifies that where the consideration for a supply is not wholly in money, the value will be the open market value.

Open market value of a supply means the full value in money, excluding the applicable GST, where the supplier and the recipient of the supply are not related and the price is the sole consideration, to obtain such supply at the same time when the supply being valued is made.

Therefore, in the given case, the open market value of the goods supplied is ₹ 1,26,000 (₹ 1,48,680 x 100/118) and is therefore, the value of such goods.

(2) Rule 27 of the CGST Rules, 2017 further provides that if open market value of the supply is not known, the value of the supply will be the consideration in money plus the money equivalent to the non-monetary consideration, if such amount is known at the time of supply.

Therefore, the value in the given case will be (₹ 1,47,500 x 100/118) + ₹ 15,000, which is ₹ 1,40,000.

(b) Renting of precincts of a religious place meant for general public, owned/managed by, inter alia, an entity registered as a charitable trust under section 12AA/12AB of the Income-tax Act are exempt from GST vide exemption notification. However, said exemption is not available if:

- (iii) charges for rented shops are ₹ 10,000 per month or more.

Renting of community halls and open spaces [Exempt since charges per day are below ₹ 10,000]	10,75,000	Nil
Renting of shops for business [Exempt since charges per month are below ₹10,000]	4,75,000	Nil
Renting of shops for business [Taxable since charges per month exceed ₹ 10,000]	7,50,000	1,35,000

- (c) The abatement of duty is allowed where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Assistant/Deputy Commissioner of Customs that, inter alia, any imported goods, other than warehoused goods, had been damaged at any time after the unloading thereof in India but before their examination, on account of any accident not due to any wilful act, negligence or default of the importer.

Thus, in view of the above-mentioned provisions, the stand taken by the proper officer of refusing the claim for abatement is not valid in law.

The duty to be charged on the damaged goods shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction in the value of goods on account of damage.

Thus, in the given case, the amount of total duty payable

$$= [\text{₹ } 1,50,000 / \text{₹ } 7,50,000] \times \text{₹ } 1,50,000 = \text{₹ } 30,000$$

The abatement of duty is allowed in case of deterioration only if such deterioration occurs before or during the unloading of goods. Since in this case, imported goods have deteriorated before clearance for home consumption but after unloading, abatement of duty will not be allowed and full duty will have to be paid.

4. (a) Following persons are required to deduct CGST @ 1% [Effective tax 2% (1% CGST + 1% SGST/UTGST)] or IGST @ 2% from the payment made/credited to the supplier (deductee) of taxable goods or services or both, where the total value of such supply, under a contract, exceeds ₹ 2,50,000:

- (f) Public sector undertakings.

Further, for the purpose of deduction of tax, the value of supply shall be taken as the amount excluding CGST, SGST/UTGST, IGST and GST Compensation Cess indicated in the invoice.

$$= ₹ 2,50,000$$

Since the total value of supply under the contract does not exceed ₹ 2,50,000, tax is not required to be deducted.

Since the total value of supply under the contract exceeds ₹ 2,50,000, PSU in Uttarakhand is required to deduct tax @ 2% of ₹ 25,000, i.e. ₹ 500.

- (b) Holistic Cosmetics Ltd. would be required to prepare two separate e-way bills since each invoice value exceeds ₹ 50,000 and each invoice is considered as one consignment for the purpose of generating e-way bills.

The FAQs on E-way Bill issued by CBIC clarify that if multiple invoices are issued by the supplier to one recipient, that is, for movement of goods of more than one invoice of same consignor and consignee, multiple e-way bills have to be generated. In other words, for each invoice, one e-way bill has to be generated, irrespective of the fact whether same or different consignors or consignees are involved. Multiple invoices cannot be clubbed to generate one e-way bill. However, after generating all these e-way bills, one consolidated e-way bill can be prepared for transportation purpose, if goods are going in one vehicle.

All officers and all other persons employed in the implementation of the Act observe and follow such orders, instructions or directions.

The binding nature of such orders, instructions and directions has been a matter of debate and scrutiny. The general understanding that prevails now is that a circular is binding on the officers, but not on the assessee. However, in case such circular states something contrary to the law, the law shall prevail over the circular.

- (c) The term 'customs' derives its colour and essence from the term 'custom', which means a habitual practice or course of action that characteristically is repeated in like circumstances.

Duties on import and export of goods were levied through legislations during the British period before which, during monarchical governance, said duty was collected at the city gates at the time of goods coming in and going out. The legislations of the British period were replaced by the enactment and promulgation of the Customs Act, 1962 and the Customs Tariff Act, 1975.

The power to make laws is conferred on the Parliament and the legislature of a State by Article 245 of the Constitution of India.

Further, entry 83 of the List I [Union List] of the Seventh Schedule to Article 246 of the Constitution of India grants the power to frame laws relating to customs duty.

The power to make laws relating to customs duty vests exclusively with the Parliament.
