INTRODUCTION 1.1 The Ministry of Law and Justice on 9th January 2009 notified the Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008. The LLP Act. The Parliament passed the Limited Liability 2008 is Partnership Bill on 12th December, 2008 and the applicable to President of India has assented the Bill on 7th the whole of January, 2009 and called as the Limited Liability India Partnership Act, 2008 (the "LLP Act, 2008"). This Act has been enacted to make provisions for the formation and regulation of Limited Liability Partnerships and for matters connected there with or incidental thereto. The LLP Act, 2008 has 81 sections (of which section 81 is now omitted with effect from 1st April 2022) and 4 schedules. a) The First Schedule deals with mutual rights and duties of partners and limited liability partnership and its partners where there is absence of a formal agreement amongst them. b) The Second Schedule deals with conversion of a firm into LLP. c) The Third Schedule deals with conversion of a private company into LLP. d) The Fourth Schedule deals with conversion of unlisted public company into LLP. The Ministry of Corporate Affairs and the Registrar of Companies (ROC) are entrusted with the task of administrating the LLP Act, 2008. The Central Government has the authority to frame the Rules with regard to the LLP Act, 2008, and can amend them by notifications in the Official Gazette, from time to time. It is also to be noted that the Indian Partnership Act, 1932 is not applicable to LLPs. Note: The Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008 has been recently amended through the Limited Liability Partnership (Amendment) Act, 2021 dated 13th August, 2021. Need of new form of Limited Liability Partnership: The lawmakers envisaged the need for bringing out a new legislation for creation of the Limited Liability Partnership to meet with the contemporary growth of the Indian economy. A need has been felt for a new corporate form that would provide an alternative to the traditional partnership with unlimited personal liability on the one hand and the statute-based governance structure of the limited liability company on the other hand. In order to enable professional expertise and entrepreneurial initiative and to combine and operate in flexible, innovative and efficient manner, the LLP Act, 2008 was enacted.

Thus, LLP as a form of business organization is an alternative corporate business vehicle. It provides the benefits of limited liability but allows its members the flexibility of organizing their internal structure as a partnership based on a mutually arrived agreement. The LLP form enables entrepreneurs, professionals and enterprises providing services of any kind or engaged in scientific and technical disciplines, to form commercially efficient vehicles suited to their requirements. Owing to flexibility in its structure and operation, the LLP is a suitable vehicle for small enterprises and for investment by venture capital.

1.2 LIMITED LIABILITY PARTNERSHIP MEANING AND CONCEPT

Meaning: LLP is a new form of legal business entity with limited liability. It is an alternative corporate business vehicle that not only gives the benefits of limited liability at low compliance cost but allows its partners the flexibility of organising their internal structure as a traditional partnership. The LLP is a separate legal entity and, while the LLP itself will be liable to the full extent of its assets, the liability of the partners will be limited to the extent of their capital contribution.

Since LLP contains elements of both 'a corporate structure' as well as 'a partnership firm structure' LLP is called a hybrid between a company and a partnership.

- The Limited Liability 1. Partnership ACT, 2008 perpetual succession. Therefore, any change in the partners of a LLP shall not affect the existence, rights or liabilities of the LLP. 2. Perpetual Succession: The LLP can continue its existence irrespective of changes in partners. Death, insanity, retirement or insolvency of partners has no impact on the existence of LLP. It is capable of entering into contracts and holding property in its own name. 3. Separate Legal Entity: Section 3 of LLP Act provides that a LLP is a body corporate formed and incorporated under this Act and is a legal entity separate from that of its partners. The LLP is liable to the full extent of its assets but liability of the partners is limited to their agreed contribution in the LLP. In other words, creditors of LLP shall be the creditors of LLP alone. Mutual Agency: No partner is liable on account of the independent or unauthorized actions of other partners, thus individual partners are shielded from joint liability created by another partner's wrongful business decisions or misconduct. In other words, all partners will be the agents of the LLP alone. No one partner can bind the other partner by his acts. 5. LLP Agreement: Mutual rights and duties of the partners within a LLP are governed by - an agreement between the partners. The LLP Act, 2008 provides flexibility to partner to devise the agreement as per their choice. In the absence of any such agreement, the mutual rights and duties shall be governed by Schedule I of the LLP Act, 2008.
- 6. Artificial Legal Person: A LLP is an artificial legal person because it is created by a legal process and is clothed with all rights of an individual. It can do everything which any natural person can do, except of course that, it cannot be sent to jail, cannot take an oath, cannot marry or get divorce nor can it practice a learned profession like CA or Medicine. A LLP is invisible, intangible, immortal (it can be dissolved by law alone) but not fictitious because it really exists.
- 7. Common Seal: A LLP being an artificial person can act through its partners and designated partners. LLP may have a common seal, if it decides to have one [Section 14(c)]. Thus, it is not mandatory for a LLP to have a common seal. It shall remain under the custody of some responsible official and it shall be affixed in the presence of at least 2 designated partners of the LLP.

8.	Limited Liability: Every partner of a LLP is, for the purpose of the business of LLP, the agent of the LLP, but not of other partners (Section 26). The liability of the partners will be limited to their agreed contribution in the LLP. Such contribution may be of tangible or intangible nature or both.
	Example 2: The professionals like Engineering consultants, Legal Advisors and Accounting Professional are afraid of entering into business due to unlimited liability.
	Hence, the LLP Act provides an avenue for these professionals to enter into Limited Liability Partnership firms which restrict their liability to the agreed amount. This has encouraged Professionals to form LLP.
9.	Management of Business: The partners in the LLP are entitled to manage the business of LLP. But only the designated partners are responsible for legal compliances.
10.	Minimum and Maximum number of Partners : Every LLP shall have at least two partners and shall also have at least 2 individuals as designated partners, of whom at least one shall be resident in India. There is no maximum limit on the partners in LLP.
11.	Business for Profit Only: The essential requirement for forming LLP is carrying on a lawful business with a view to earn profit. Thus, LLP cannot be formed for charitable or non-economic purpose.
12.	Investigation: The Central Government shall have powers to investigate the affairs of an LLP by appointment of competent authority for the purpose.
13.	Compromise or Arrangement: Any compromise or agreements including merger and amalgamation of LLPs shall be in accordance with the provisions of the LLP Act, 2008.
14.	Conversion into LLP: A firm, private company or an unlisted public company would be allowed to be converted into LLP in accordance with the provisions of LLP Act, 2008.
15.	E-Filling of Documents: Every form or application of document required to be filed or delivered under the act and rules made thereunder, shall be filed in computer readable 4	electronic form on its website www.mca.gov.in and authenticated by a partner or designated partner of LLP by the use of electronic or digital signature.
16.	Foreign LLPs: Section 2(1)(m) defines foreign limited liability partnership "as a limited liability partnership formed, incorporated, or registered outside India which established

However, an individual shall not be capable of becoming a partner of a LLP, if: (a) he has been found to be of unsound mind by a Court of competent jurisdiction and the finding is in force: (b) he is an undischarged insolvent; or (c) he has applied to be adjudicated as an insolvent and his application is pending. CHAPTER 1

THE LIMITED LIABILITY PARTNERSHIP ACT

Question 1:

"LLP is an alternative corporate business form that gives the benefits of limited liability of a company and the flexibility of a partnership". Explain.

Answer:

LLP is an alternative corporate business form that gives the benefits of limited liability of a company and the flexibility of a partnership :

- Limited Liability: Every partner of a LLP is, for the purpose of the business of LLP, the agent of the LLP, but not of other partners (Section 26 of the LLP Act, 2008). The liability of the partners will be limited to their agreed contribution in the LLP, while the LLP itself will be liable for the full extent of its assets.
- Flexibility of a partnership: The LLP allows its members the flexibility of organizing their internal structure as a partnership based on a mutually arrived agreement. The LLP form enables entrepreneurs, professionals and enterprises providing services of any kind or engaged in scientific and technical disciplines, to form commercially efficient vehicles suited to their requirements. Owing to flexibility in its structure and operation, the LLP is a suitable vehicle for small enterprises and for investment by venture capital.

Question 12:

Mr. Ankit Sharma wants to form a LLP taking him, his wife Mrs. Archika Sharma and One HUF as partners for that. Whether this LLP can be incorporated under LLP Act, 2008? Explain.

Answer:

- Section 5 of Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008 provides any individual or body corporate may be a partner in an LLP. However, an individual shall not be capable of becoming a partner of a LLP, if:
 - (a) he has been found to be of unsound mind by a Court of competent jurisdiction and the finding is in force;
 - (b) he is an undischarged insolvent; or
 - (c) he has applied to be adjudicated as an insolvent and his application is pending.

- Further, Section (2)(1)(e) provides that a Body Corporate it means a company as defined in 'clause (20) of section 2 of the Companies Act, 2013 and includes:
 - (i) an LLP registered under this Act;
 - (ii) an LLP incorporated outside India; and
 - (iii) a company incorporated outside India,
- but does not include:
 - (i) a corporation sole;
 - (ii) a co-operative society registered under any law for the time being in force; and
 - (iii) any other body corporate (not being a company as defined in 'clause (20) of section 2 of the Companies Act, 20132' or a limited liability partnership as defined in this Act), which the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf. Therefore, HUF is not covered in the definition of body corporate and cannot be partner in LLP.

Question 3:
