Following losses can be carried forward for subsequent assessment years:

As per section 64(1)(ii), all the income which arises directly or indirectly, to the spouse of any individual by way of salary, commission, fees or any other form of remuneration from a concern in which such individual has a substantial interest shall be included in the total income of such individual. However, where spouse possesses technical or professional qualification and the income is solely attributable to the application of such knowledge and experience, clubbing provisions will not apply. Since, Mrs. Shamita is not adequately qualified for the post and Mr. Hritik has substantial interest in Ray Ltd by holding 21% of the shares of the Ray Ltd., the salary income of Mrs. Shamita to be included in Mr. Hritik's income.
2. As per section 71(3A), loss from house property can be set off against any other head of income to the extent of ₹ 2,00,000 only.
3. 60% of the losses from tea business is treated as agricultural income and therefore exempt under section 10(1). Loss from an exempt source cannot be set off against profits from a taxable source.

Answer 3 (B):

- i. Section 194-IA requires deduction of tax@1% by every transferee responsible for paying any sum as consideration for transfer of immovable property (land, other than agricultural land, or building or part of building) to a resident transferor. Tax is not required to be deducted at source where the total amount of consideration for the transfer and SDV of immovable property is less than Rs 50 lakhs. Consideration for transfer of any immovable property includes, inter alia, club membership fee, car parking fee, maintenance fee, which are incidental to transfer of the immovable property.

As amendment made by FA 2024, w.e.f. 1/10/2024, Where there is more than one transferor or transferee in respect of any immovable property, then the consideration shall be the aggregate of the amounts paid or payable by all the transferees to the transferor or all the transferors for transfer of such immovable property.

In the present case, since the consideration for transfer of flat by Mr. Mani & Mrs. Bani to Omkar Construction Ltd. is Rs 52,20,000 (Rs 48 lakhs + Rs 1,20,000, being Rs 5,000 x 24 + Rs 2 lakhs + Rs 1 lakh) which is not less than Rs 50 lakhs, Mr. Mani is required to deduct tax @1% on Rs 26,100,000 & Bani also require to deduct tax @1% on Rs 26,100,000.

Total Tax deductible by Mr. Mani & Mrs. Bani would be Rs 52,200

- ii. Since Mr. X pays rent exceeding Rs50,000 per month in the F.Y. 2024-25, he is liable to deduct tax at source @ 2% of such rent for F.Y. 2024-25 u/s 194-IB. Thus, Rs11,000 [Rs55,000 x 2% x 10] has to be deducted from rent payable for March, 2025.

If Mr. X vacated the premises in December 2024, then tax of Rs7,700 (Rs55,000 x 2% x 7) has to be deducted from rent payable for December, 2024.

In case Mr. Y does not provide his PAN to Mr. X, tax would be deductible @ 20%, instead of 2%.

In case 1 above, this would amount to Rs1,10,000 [Rs55,000 x 20% x 10] but the same has to be restricted to Rs55,000, being rent for March 2025.

In case 1 above, this would amount to Rs77,000 [Rs55,000 x 20% x 7] but the same has to be restricted to Rs55,000, being rent for December 2024

- iii. Mr. Hardik last year T/O more than Rs 100 lakhs then also he is not required to deduct TDS u/s 194J as fees for professional service is for personal purpose of Individual.

However, tax is required to be deducted at source@2% u/s 194M, on the payment of Rs 65,00,000, since such an amount exceeds Rs 50 lakhs.

Therefore, tax deducted at source would be Rs 1,30,000, being 2% of Rs 65,00,000.

In other words, the assessee is required to pay tax at 12.5% without indexation or 20% with indexation, whichever is lower

Answer 4 (B):

As per sixth proviso to section 139(1), every person, being an individual whose total income without giving effect to the provisions of, inter alia, section 54EC and Chapter VI-A exceeds the basic exemption limit, is compulsorily required to furnish return of income on or before the due date.

Therefore, in the present case, Mr. Prince, a senior citizen is required to file return of income, since his total income of 3,90,000 before giving effect to the exemption under section 54EC and deduction of Rs 1,50,000 under Chapter VI-A, exceeds the basic exemption limit of Rs 3,00,000 applicable in his case.
